EVENTS OF INTEREST

News items of interest to the vascular surgeon must be received at least 8 weeks before the desired month of publication. Announcements published at no charge include those received from a sponsoring society of this Journal, those courses and conferences sponsored by state, regional, national, or international vascular surgical organizations, and university-sponsored continuing medical education courses. All other news items selected for publication carry a charge of $60.00 US for each insertion, and the fee must accompany the request to publish. Send announcements and payment, payable to this Journal, to Issue Management, Elsevier Inc., 1600 John F. Kennedy Boulevard, Suite 1800, Philadelphia, PA, 19103.

Challenges in Vascular Surgery 2010: Coding & Reimbursement for Vascular Surgeons, October 8-9

Held in Chicago at the Millennium Knickerbocker Hotel, this program is intended for those who seek to improve and expand their knowledge of accurate coding and reimbursement for vascular surgery. The program will cover important topics such as 2010 coding and reimbursement rule updates, interventional procedures, the global surgical package definition, operative note dictations, component coding, bypass surgery, and evaluation and management (E&M) coding. For more information, visit VascularWeb.org®.

Annual Fellows Course in Venous Disease, Dec. 2-4

The course will be held at Good Samaritan Hospital Cincinnati. The Fellows Course in Venous Diseases 2010 is now under the direction of Steve Elias, MD FACS FACPh and the American Venous Forum. They are pleased to announce their partnership which creates a unified academic source for Fellows' education in venous disease. High quality interactive programming and low faculty attendee ratio will remain the same. Space is limited to 35 per course. The courses are expense free for attendees. Register online at veinforum.org/fellowscourse.html. For questions call Angela Wetherbee, AVF administrative office at 978-744-5005.

SVS Membership Application Deadline, March 1, 2011

All membership applications (except for vascular surgery residents or fellows applying for candidate membership) need to be submitted by March 1. Questions about the application process can be directed to membership@vascularsociety.org.

CME Credit Available to JVS Readers

Two Category 1 Continuing Medical Education (CME) Credits can be obtained by successfully answering questions about four articles from each issue of the Journal of Vascular Surgery®. These articles are selected by the Editors because they contain information relevant to vascular surgery practice, and questions are supplied by the authors that can be answered after reading the articles. Access to the CME questions is free and open to the public. After successfully answering the questions, Journal subscribers can print a CME certificate at no cost. For non-subscribers, there is a $10 fee per examination to receive a certificate of completion. CME accreditation is provided by the Society for Vascular Surgery®. To access the CME questions, or for more information, visit VascularWeb.org®.
